under:—

Year	Cases registered
2000	two
2001	one
2002	three

(c) No Clear cut differentiation is possible because many IPC crimes may also have involved the use of cyber tools.

(d) There is an Information Technology Act, 2000. Apart from this the existing penal laws also apply to cyber crimes.

Imparting Practical Training to Police to Control Organised Crimes

†5176. SHRI MOTILAL VORA: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government feels the need of imparting more practical training to the Police in view of the new type of organized crimes such as terrorism, intellectual terrorism, cyber crimes etc.;

(b) if so, the steps taken so far by Government for coordination between the Centre and States in this regard and to give them more assistance; and

(c) if not, the reasons therefor and by when Government would take necessary action in this direction?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI I. D. SWAMI): (a) to (c) The Government have been taking various steps to provide professional training to the personnel of the Central Police Organization (CPOs) and State Police Forces for updating of their skills and knowledge through various training methodology and by conducting various specialized courses on anti terrorism, cyber crimes etc.

†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

Every year the Central Government offers the following training facilities to State Police Forces and CPOs to train their personnel in anti terrorist operations:—

Sl. No.	Name of the Institute	Name of course	No. of slots available
1.	ITBP Academy, Mussorie	Anti-Terrorist & VIP Protection Commando	205
2.	BSF Training Centre & School, Hazaribagh	Counter-insurgency and Commando	60
3.	Assam Rifles Training Centre & School, Dimapur	Counter-insurgency and Jungle Warfare	200
4.	NSG Training Centre, Manesar	i) Bomb Disposal i) ii) Police Commando Course ii) iii) VIP Security iii)	275 250 250
5.	Central Detective Training School at Kolkata, Chandigarh and Hyderabad	Course on investigation of cases relating to Terrorist and Explosive Offences	90

The following institutions conduct courses on cyber crimes:—

(i) Central Bureau of Investigation.
(ii) SVP National Police Academy, Hyderabad.
(iii) National Crime Records Bureau, New Delhi.
(iv) Punjab Police Academy, Phillaur (Punjab),
(v) Police Training College, Madhuban (Haryana).
(vi) Central Detective Training School, Hyderabad.
(vii) Police Training College, Hazaribagh (Jharkhand).

47 Police personnel of State Police Forces have also been trained in specialised courses like Anti-Terrorist Instructors course, Hostage Negotiation, Interrogation Techniques, Terrorist Scene Crime Investigation, Officers Survival, Critical Incident Counter Management etc. in United States of America under the Anti-Terrorist Assistance Programme of US Government in Last two years.

In addition to the above, the Central Government provides funds for training infrastructure and equipment to States under the Police modernisation scheme.